

GroupOne Facilitator Role and Responsibility

- Role Description
 - The purpose of GroupOne is for people to find freedom from their past, connect with others and grow in their walk with Christ. As a GroupOne Facilitator, you have the privilege of leading the way for people to encounter life change.
 - As a GroupOne Facilitator, you are the frontline of not just leading your GroupOne members but pastoring them. You have the role of cheerleader and encourager as well as pastor and mentor. As Leaders, we are representatives and reflect the heart of Christ first. You are also a representative of LifePoint Church and the heart of our Lead Pastor, Pastor Mike.
 - Facilitate weekly meetings with your circle using the Rooted curriculum.
 - Be available towards the members in your group to address any concerns or questions they may have.

- First 3 Plan
 - Attend all steps of Growth Track
 - Attend GroupOne
 - Attend LifeGroup Leader Training

- Time Expectations
 - As a GroupOne Facilitator, you will be responsible for preparing your lessons each week. Allow for 1 to 2 hours a week to read your material and prepare any lessons you will be facilitating.
 - Be prepared to take time out of your week to follow-up with your GroupOne members through face-to-face contact, phone call, text, e-mail or social media.

- First Service Action Plan
 - Submit GroupOne Facilitator Application
 - Send out an email 24-48 hours in advance before meeting
 - Review the bullet points of Resource and Prep

- All The Rest:
- LifeGroup Leadership Trainings
 - Reach out to people that you think have leadership potential and encourage them to complete all steps of the Growth Track, attend GroupOne and LifeGroup Leaders Training upon completion.
 - Spend time in Dream Team Central and any common areas of your campus and get to know Dream Teamers and attendees that may be interested in GroupOne.

- Communication
 - We encourage you to stay in contact with your members throughout the week. This can be accomplished through face-to-face, phone call, e-mail, text or social media.
 - Maximize your Sundays; We encourage you to meet with people in your circle on Sundays outside of your weekly meeting time. Suggested questions to ask members in your circle are:
 - “How are you?”
 - “How’s your family?”
 - “How is your group going?”
 - “What’s on your mind?”

- “What else is on your mind?”
- “What are your wins?”
- “How can I pray for you?”
- “How can I better serve you?”
- “What concerns do you have that I can help you with?”

- Resource and Prep

- As a GroupOne Facilitator, you will facilitate your circle through Rooted. You will be given a Rooted workbook as well as a Rooted facilitator’s guide.
- As their leader, you individually are a resource to them. Don’t underestimate your own knowledge, experience and wisdom that God has graced you with and how the Holy Spirit can and will use you to reach, teach and lead his people.
- Resource Tab: Be sure to view the “Resource” Tab once logged into Planning Center to check out all available resources to you.
- RightNow Media: Create an account for RightNow Media at www.lifepointchurch.tv/rightnowmedia
- Books, Articles and Podcasts: Share any podcasts, book recommendations and other articles you have received with the Leaders under your Hub
- Pastoral Care Resources: Books that are worth reading are “The Peacemaker” by Ken Sande and “The First 48 Hours” by Jennifer S. Cisney and Kevin L. Ellers. These are great books that will equip you and assist you in conflict management and being a healthy spiritual caregiver to our leaders.
- Counseling: Encourage members and leaders to seek Pastor Randy and Melisha Pearson. To set up an appointment with either one of them, contact Melisha at Melisha@lifepointchurch.tv
