Sermon: Breakfast Matters (John 21:3-14)

Speaker: Pastor Mark Delaney

Icebreaker

- What is the best breakfast?

Conversation Starters and Sermon Review

1. Our truth must be subject to Jesus's truth.

- When have the words of Jesus disrupted your truth?
- Where do you go to recenter, calm down, or figure out your priorities? How do you recenter, calm down, or figure out your priorities?
- Who do you trust in the midst of frustration/anger?

2. God chooses to invite us into His story.

- What are you fishing for?
- How much does what you're fishing for actually matter?
- What has God given you that you can use to partner with Him?
- Our obedience becomes a show or performance when we base truth in our behaviors. What is a behavior that is fueling a false truth?
- John 21:6 reads, "He (Jesus) said, 'Throw your net on the right side of the boat and you will find some.'"
 - Are you or have you ever thought you were throwing out your catch for Him and continued to come up empty? Did you ever think it was because you were throwing it out by your own truth and wants instead of in obedience to God?
 - If you chose obedience to God and threw your net to the other side, what was the result? Did you find the catch that He had in store for you?

3. Draw close to Jesus.

- Do you feel close to Jesus? How is your relationship with Jesus?

- Many of us come up with extra time in our day, and we just cram in more stuff to do. What if instead we added more Jesus? How can you add more time with Jesus in your life each week?

Act On It

Encourage: God chooses to invite us into His story. Be encouraged that our faithfulness is not dependent on our obedience. Remember, Jesus is not a set of principles to live by, He is a person to follow. God gives His love, grace, and forgiveness freely. James 1:17 - "Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows."

Ask: Ask God what His priorities are for you. Write them down.

Challenge: Sit with Jesus for 15 extra minutes this week. Not prayer or reading your bible, but just being with Him. Slow down.

Prayer Request and Prayer

Lord, thank you that you are a good Father full of grace for your children. We invite you in to speak your truth into our lives. We welcome you into our lives and ask you to lead us in a deeper relationship with you. God please open our hearts to listen and obey. Interrupt my space in any way you want! We trust you! We love you! In Jesus name, AMEN!
