Building on a Legacy of Generosity

At LifePoint Church, generosity has always been part of who we are.

For years, the people of LifePoint have faithfully given so that one more person can know Jesus and experience the life-changing hope of the Gospel, in our communities, across our nation, and around the world.

We have seen what God can do through a church willing to live with open hands. We have supported missionaries, strengthened ministries, served communities, expanded our reach, and created more opportunities for people to encounter Jesus.

Kingdom Builders is the next step in that legacy of generosity.

It is an invitation to look beyond what God has already done and ask what He might want to do through us next.

FIRST, THE TITHE

Scripture teaches us the principle of the tithe. The word tithe means “a tenth,” and when we tithe, we return the first 10% of our income to God through the local church.

Tithing is our starting point for biblical generosity, an act of worship and obedience that recognizes everything we have ultimately comes from God.

As a church, LifePoint practices this same principle.
We tithe on the tithe.

Ten percent of everything given to LifePoint continues to be invested in missionaries in the United States and around the world.

Kingdom Builders does not replace that commitment.

It builds upon it.

THEN, KINGDOM BUILDERS

Once we are faithfully tithing, we have the opportunity to ask another question:

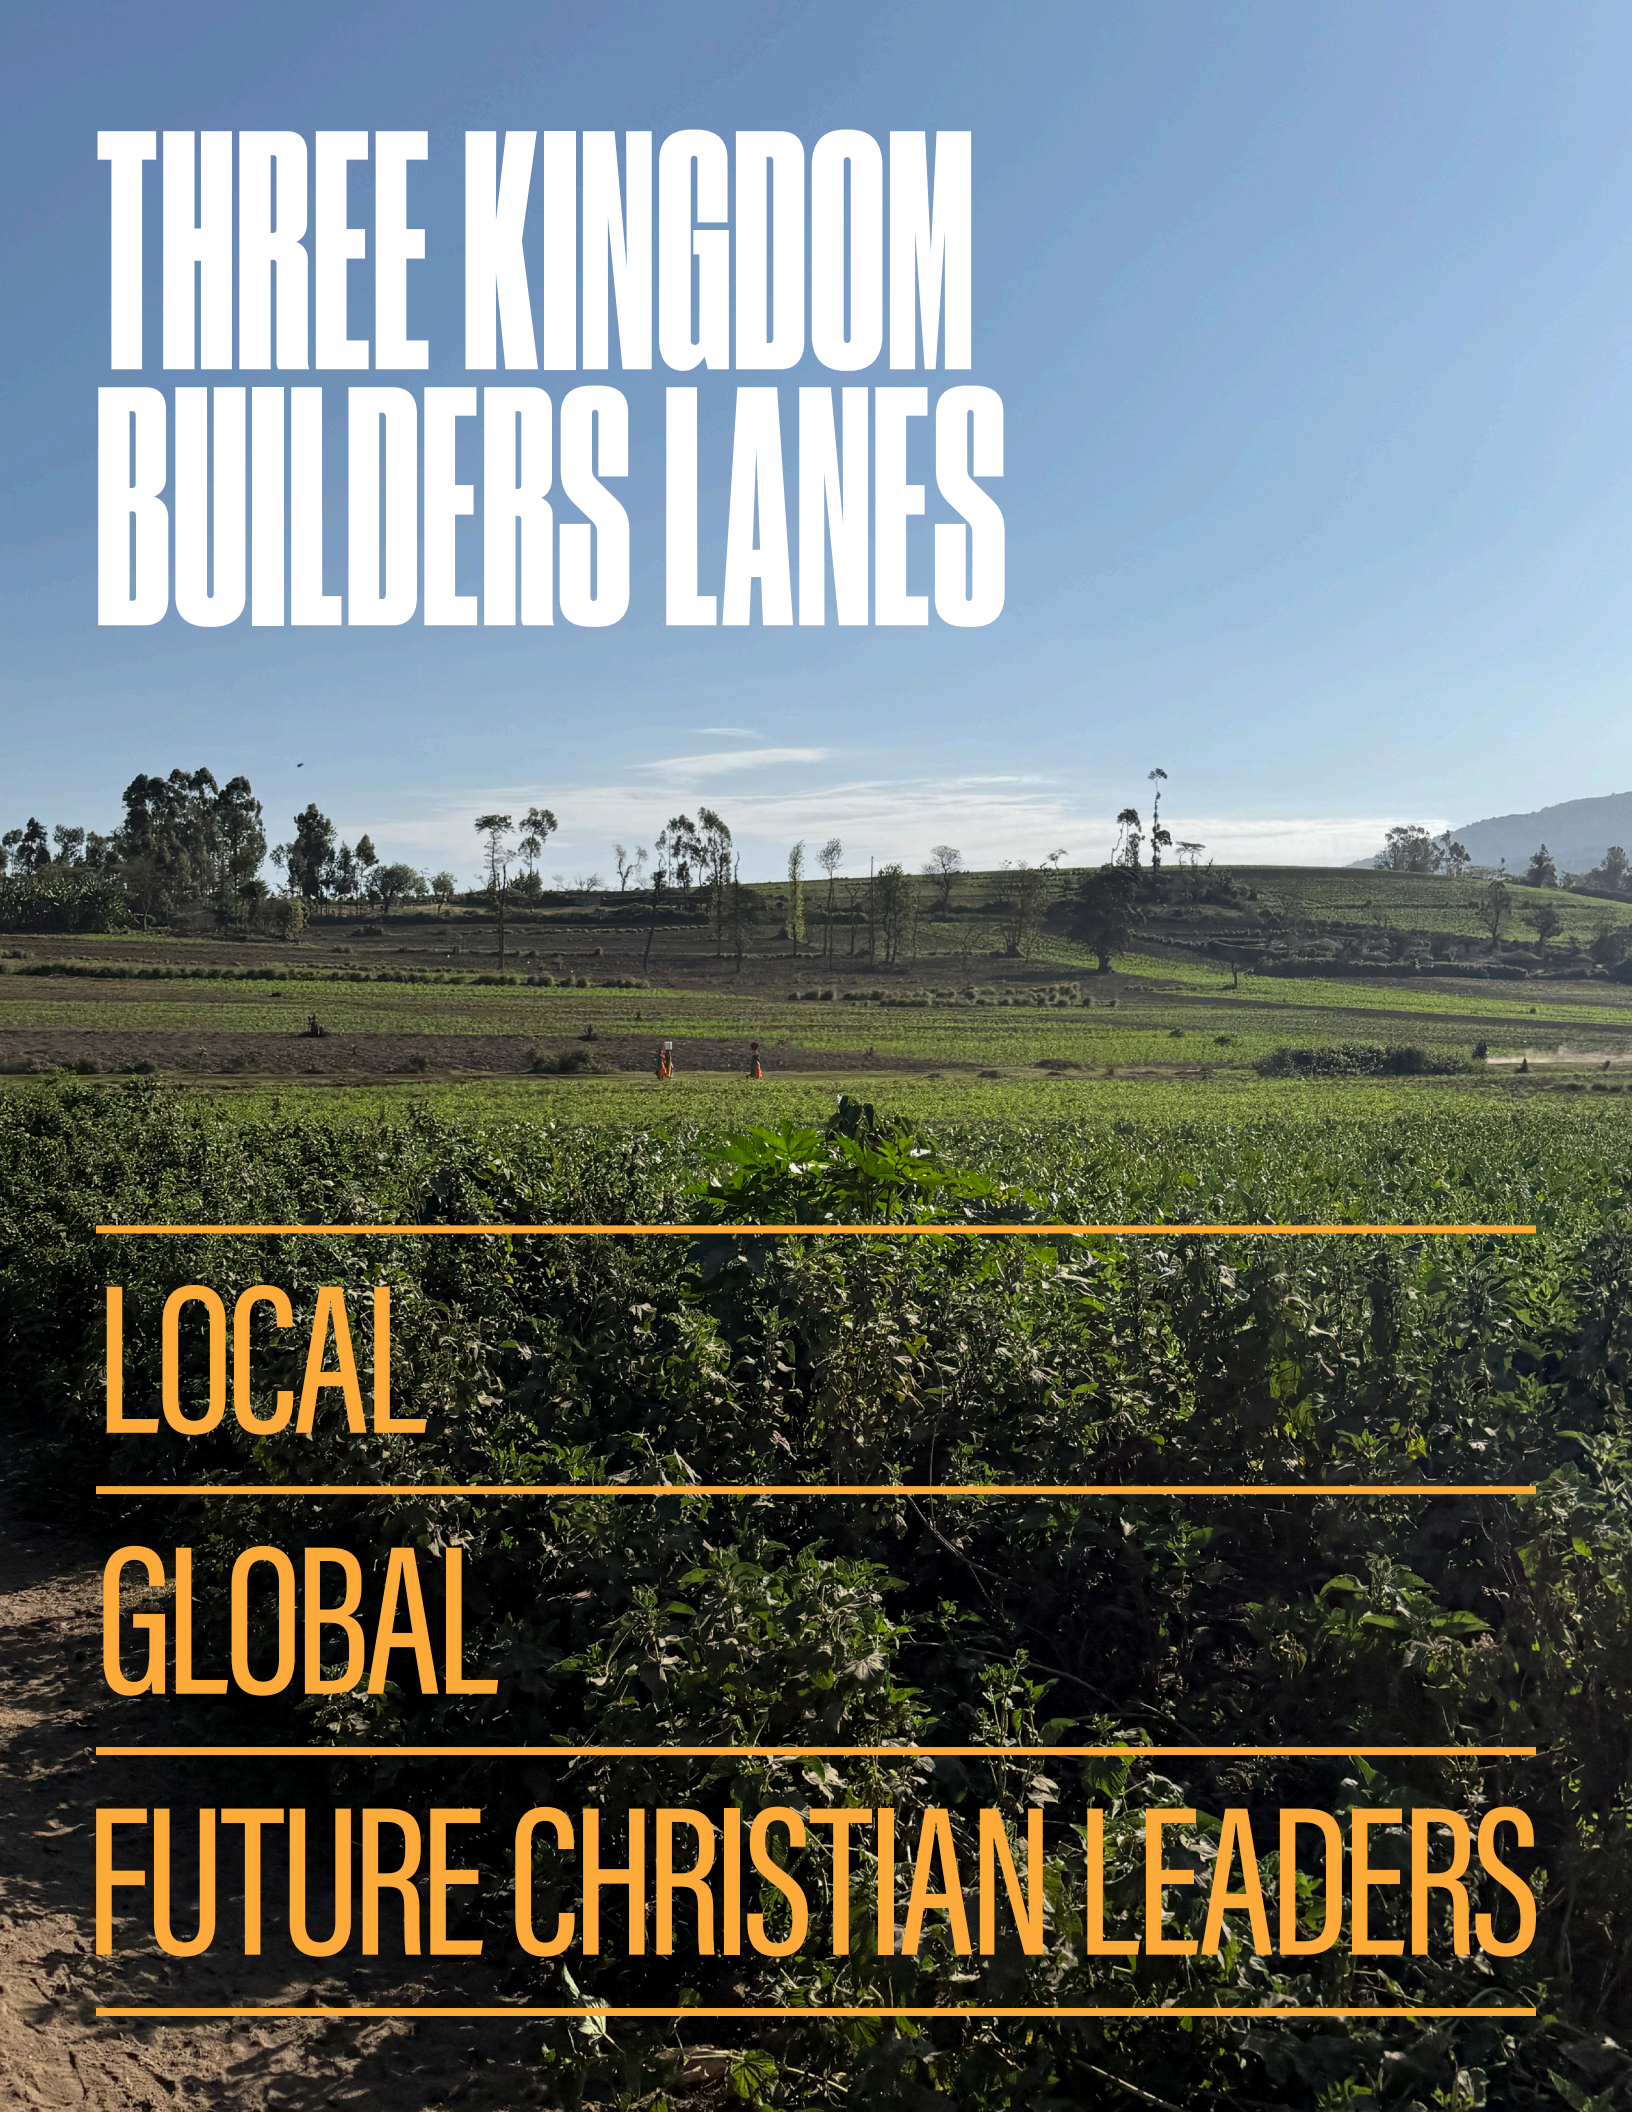

"God, what would You have me give above and beyond?"

That is the heart of Kingdom Builders. Kingdom Builders is our opportunity to give above and beyond the tithe to accelerate specific projects, partnerships, and initiatives that advance the Gospel and help us reach one more.

There is no required amount to become a Kingdom Builder. The first dollar given after the tithe makes you part of Kingdom Builders. It begins with a willingness to pray, listen, and respond to what God places on your heart.

We believe we are blessed to be a blessing.

And when we bring our generosity together, we can reach one more person, serve one more family, strengthen one more ministry, develop one more leader, and make an impact that extends far beyond ourselves.

WHAT'S NEXT?

Kingdom Builders gives us an opportunity to take the next step together.

The question before us isn't simply: "How much can we give?" It's: "What could God do through us if we were willing to give above and beyond?"

We believe the answer is more than we could accomplish on our own.

More people reached.
More communities served.
More leaders are equipped.
More churches strengthened.
More lives changed by Jesus.

TODAY

Today, we're sharing the vision for Kingdom Builders and introducing some of the projects, ministries, and partners we believe God is calling us to invest in.

Some represent new opportunities.

Others are trusted partners LifePoint has faithfully supported for years.

Together, they represent opportunities to make a significant Kingdom impact, both now and for generations to come.

Our First Kingdom Builders Miracle Offering

On November 15, we will come together for LifePoint's first Kingdom Builders Miracle Offering.

This will be an opportunity for each of us to prayerfully bring an above-and-beyond gift toward the projects and ministry initiatives represented in Kingdom Builders.

We aren't asking everyone to give the same amount.

We're asking everyone to ask the same question:
"God, what would You have me do?"

Then, together, we will trust God with the results.

THIS IS JUST THE BEGINNING

Our first Miracle Offering is the beginning of what we believe will become an ongoing legacy of generosity at LifePoint.

In January 2027, we will share our annual Kingdom Builders goal with the entire LifePoint family and invite everyone to participate.

Throughout the year, we will celebrate the ministries, partners, people, and projects your generosity is helping make possible and continue prayerfully pursuing new opportunities to make a Kingdom impact.

We aren't simply funding projects.

We're investing in people. We're advancing the Gospel. We're building for generations we may never meet.

We may never know every name or see every story, but we can help make those stories possible.

Because generosity is more than giving. It's building His Kingdom, and together, we're going to keep making room to reach one more.
